

Flipping The Classroom

The introductory paragraph will introduce and illustrate the principles of Flipping the Classroom, examine current examples.

Animated GIF image

Black and white Traditional classroom photo with a teacher as lecturer that flips and fades out and a flipped classroom color image, where teacher is shown face-to-face with students, flips and fades in

The Second paragraph consists of a summary of the existing studies and research in the Flipped Classroom Model. It will mention its pioneers, early adopters, and the resources they are using. _____

GIF image

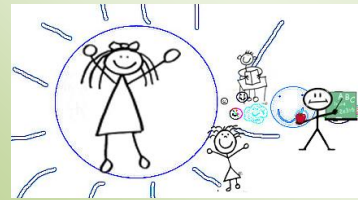

The graphic would be a white rectangle containing icons and logos from the different professional and commercial organizations and online resources that make the model possible.

The third paragraph focuses on general tips and tricks for successful implementation of the Flipped Classroom Model and its various permutations.

Animated GIF image

Graphic illustrates a solar system with a student at a computer replacing the sun. The teacher, other students, equations, and other objects are shown to revolve around the student. The graphic is meant to represent student centered learning.

Credits
